E - PHOTOGRAPHY EXPERIENCE

ASSIGNMENTS

Photography assignments have taken Mike to various locations across Canada. Mike travelled to the Canadian East Coast in 2015 and to Ontario and Alberta to create new images for an upcoming book on 'Canada' (scheduled for 2017). 'Mike Grandmaison's Ontario (2015) and 'Beautiful Alberta (2015). In 2013, Mike focussed his attention on the new Canadian Museum for Human Rights completing a number of assignments for Gartner Steel and Glass (Germany), Canada Post and Circle Design, both in Winnipeg, MB. In 2010, Mike travelled to the Northwest Territories, the Yukon, British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario to capture new images to revise his new 'Canada' book for a 2017 release. In that same year, Mike also visited the Northwestern Ontario town of Ear Falls, on a half dozen occasions to create new imagery for the township as part of a 10-day assignment. A year earlier, in 2009, he photographed throughout Quebec and the Canadian Maritimes for the same purpose.

In 2008, Mike completed the photography for a coffee table book on Muskoka, Ontario for Key Porter Books (Toronto) which was published in March 2009, all the while photographing for another book on the province of Ontario. In August 2007 and again in March 2006, Mike photographed across the prairies and mountains for Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada (Ottawa). In 2004, he completed the photography for his first coffee table book with Key Porter called Canada (2005). In 2004, Mike also completed a 10-day assignment to photograph the Lake of the Woods region for the Lake of the Woods Business Incentive Corporation.

In 2003, Mike teamed up with a colleague and completed a major assignment for Monsanto Canada while working for Osborne and Barr Communications in St. Louis, MI. In 2002 and 2004, he travelled across Canada for Canadian Affair, a travel company in the UK to obtain photographs of 70 hotels, inns and scenics. In 2000, Mike photographed for three coffee table books; two business / tourism books for the London and Hamilton Chambers of Commerce and one environmental book for the Region of Sudbury ("Healing The Landscape"). These books came on the heels of two other business / tourism books for Winnipeg and Canada's Technology Triangle (Kitchener, Waterloo, Guelph and Cambridge).

In the fall of 1999, Mike completed a major photographic essay about The Reclamation of the Sudbury Area for Canadian Geographic Magazine (April / May 2000 issue). Mike travelled throughout the prairies on assignment for the Canadian Wheat Board to update their agriculture file in the years 1996, 2000 and 2001. Mike also completed a number of assignments for Canadian Gardening, Harrowsmith Country Life and Farm Forum magazines.

Mike enjoys photographing architecture for a number of clients, often traveling extensively on assignment for architectural firms like Smith Carter Architects, LM Architects, Friesen Tokar Architect, Nejmark Architect and Number Ten Architectural Group to name a few. Mike completed an assignment for Canada Post for a new postage stamp commemorating the 125th anniversary of the University of Manitoba (2002).

STOCK PHOTOGRAPHS

Mike's photographs are represented internationally through four stock photography agencies: First Light (Toronto), All Canada Photos (Victoria) and Jaynes Gallery (USA). Mike also markets his photographs from his Winnipeg Office through Grandmaison Photography. His images have been published extensively in annual reports, audio-visual presentations, books, brochures, calendars, magazines, web sites and as cards and fine art prints. Mike's photographs often appear in various editions of most major Canadian calendar companies, as well as in selected, single photographer calendars by BrownTrout Publishers, North America's largest producer of fine calendars as well as Canada's largest retail calendar company, Wyman Publishing. Mike's images are routinely featured in the award winning, 'Inner Reflections' calendar. His images are also featured in numerous corporate calendars, including the prestigious, exclusive and limited edition engagement calendar by "Friesens.
